

Jesse Brangwynne

301F PATCH HALL · UNIVERSITY OF MAINE · ORONO, ME 04469
PHONE: (207) 441-6602 · EMAIL: JESSE.BRANGWYNNE@UMIT.MAINE.EDU

---

Experience	Camp Androscoggin- Counselor (2008 and 2009 Summer) Wayne, ME <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>· Instructed waterskiing and wakeboarding</li><li>· Supervised campers (ages 8-15)</li></ul>
	The Village Inn Restaurant (2005-2007) Belgrade Lakes, ME <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>· Served in a fine dining atmosphere</li><li>· Bartended</li><li>· Prepared food/ washed dishes</li></ul>
Education	University of Maine (2006-Present) Orono, ME <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>· Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering</li><li>· Concentration in Structural Engineering</li><li>· Expected graduation in May, 2010</li></ul>
Relevant Course Work	Structural Analysis I Reinforced Concrete Design Foundation Engineering Dynamics of Materials
Achievements	Fundamentals of Engineering Exam Passed – Spring 2009
Activities	American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE) Member <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>· ASCE Student Mentor</li></ul> Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity Member
Skills	RISA 2-D – Proficient with computerized structural analysis Microstation - Established basic drafting skills.

